16th January—20th January

Dear Parents, I hope you all have a lovely half term and the sunshine stays for us!

You may have seen on Dojo that my maternity cover has been arranged and it will be Mr Stephens.

Mr Stephens is already in another school within An Daras Trust so is familiar with our systems. He will be meeting with me over the next few weeks ready for transition. My last day of school will be Friday 26th May as long as the baby stays put for as long as it is meant to!!

Thank you

Miss Emma Byrom (Head of School)

Year 5 and 6 residential

Year 5 and 6 went on a three day trip to Bath and Bristol this week. The three days were full of experiences which included: The Roman Baths, Cheddar Gorge, Clifton Suspension Bridge, SS Great Britain and the Aerospace Museum. It was a wonderful few days and the children were a credit to themselves and the school. A huge thanks to the PTFA for subsidizing the trip which kept the cost down for parents. Also, thank you to Dale for driving the bus and Sheila for coming to support.
