If a child has gone above and beyond with the learning all day, then they can move to the gold star. Sent to Head of School for a sticker. If a child continues to be good they can move to the silver star. If a child has been consistently good they can move to the bronze star. All children start on the green traffic START light. Step 1: Child gets verbal warning and this is made clear by the adult. Step 2: Behaviour continues – child moves to first amber. Step 3: Behaviour continues – child moves to second amber and misses 5 minutes of next break. Step 4: Behaviour continues – child moves to third amber and misses 15 minutes of next break and completes work in another area of school. Yellow card. Phone call. Step 5: Behaviour continues – child moves to the red traffic light. Sent to Head of School's office to complete work and misses whole lunchtime. Then goes back to class. Phone call. Step 6: Behaviour continues when reintegrated into class – child goes back to work in Head of School's office and has an internal seclusion the following day.
