Year 6 Grammar and Punctuation Glossary

This glossary builds on the terminology used in previous years.

Grammar Term	What does it mean?
Active voice	A sentence can have either an active verb or a passive verb. This is called a voice . In a sentence with an active verb, the subject is doing the action. This is called the active voice, e.g. The little girl caught the ball .
Antonym	Two words are antonyms if their meanings are opposite, e.g., fast – slow, light – dark, light -heavy
Bullet points	 A punctuation mark, often a black circle, used in a text to show each new part of a list. Information should be presented in bullet point format or as a numbered list. E.g. You will need: A bowl Fruit Juice
Colon	A colon is a punctuation mark (:) consisting of two equally sized dots centered on the same vertical line. A colon precedes an explanation or list.
Ellipsis	An ellipsis is when words are left out of a sentence but the sentence can still be understood, for example, Freda waved to Chloe and she watched her drive away.
Hyphen	The hyphen (-) is a punctuation mark used to join words and to separate syllables of a single word. The use of hyphens is called hyphenation, e.g. seventy- five, self-assessment .
Object	In grammar terms, an object is a noun, noun phrase, or pronoun that is affected by the action of a verb (a direct object or an indirect object) or that completes the meaning of a preposition (the object of a preposition). E.g., Chloe wrote a beautiful poem. Libby sent me an e mail. Ben lives in an old house.

Passive voice	In a sentence with a passive verb, the subject is being acted on. This is called the passive voice, e.g. The ball was caught.
Semi-colon	A punctuation mark (;) used to join two independent clauses in a sentence. The semicolon shows that the ideas in the two clauses are related, e.g. Jack really didn't mind being left without a car; he had the house to himself.
Subject	The subject is the person or thing that is 'doing' the verb. These are always nouns or pronouns. E.g. The fox chased a rabbit. Mary went to the park.
Synonym	Two words are synonyms if they have the same meaning or similar meanings, e.g. talk – speak, old – elderly. A synonym is in contrast to an antonym.
